

Limb Loss Rehabilitation by the Numbers

Rusk Rehabilitation is a national leader in treating patients with Limb Loss. Our Limb Loss Specialty Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities. This accreditation holds us to the highest international standards in rehabilitation.

U.S. News & World Report Ranking

64 Years

Average age of patients served

3.0 Hours Per Day

Average amount of therapy provided Compared to 3.0 of the Center of Medicare and Medicaid (CMS) standard.

14.5 Days

Average length of patient hospital stay

92.5% Satisfaction

of Overall care by persons served Based on Press-Ganey Inpatient Rehabilitation Survey ratings.

Where patients are discharged to following their hospital stay:

Home: 57%

Long term care (Subacute): 35%

Acute care: 8%

6.3 Change in Self-Care

Change in patients' ability to care for themselves during their rehabilitation stay. This measure is scored from 0 to 42. The higher the number is, the higher the ability.*

20.5 Change in Mobility

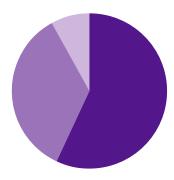

Change in patients' ability to move around during their rehabilitation stay. This measure is scored from 0 to 90. The higher the number is, the higher the ability.*

31.2 Self-Care at Discharge

Patient's ability to care for themselves at discharge from their rehabilitation stay. This measure is scored from 0 to 90. The higher the number is, the higher the ability.*

53.7 Mobility at Discharge

Patient's ability to move around at discharge from their rehabilitation stay. This measure is scored from 0 to 90. The higher the number is, the higher the ability.*

^{*}Based on Center of Medicare & Medicaid (CMS) Inpatient Rehabilitation Facility Patient Assessment Instrument

